I, _____, would like to resign my membership in Local 849 of the I.A.T.S.E., in accordance with Article Twenty-One, Section 13, of the International Constitution and Bylaws:

A member desirous of withdrawing from membership in this Alliance may do so by sending a letter of resignation to the affiliated local union to which they belong ... and in such case, the resignation shall become effective upon receipt of such notice of resignation.

A member so resigning shall forfeit all rights, benefits and privileges incident to membership in the Alliance or to the affiliated local union to which they belong at the time of such resignation.

I acknowledge that if I should decide to reinstate my membership in Local 849 of the I.A.T.S.E. at a future date, I would be required to:

- Payback all per capita owing to the Local and to the International from the date this letter was signed.
- Be voted back into membership by the Members of Local 849.
- Meet any additional requirements that may be in place for reinstating members.
